

Read the book " Dard ka Safar".

It is amazing.

Came to know about your new capabilities of journalism and writer. It was the power and art of your writing which made me finish the book in short time.

I was very much impressed on the efforts and assistance made by Mr. Mark(called name). Was unable to control my tears while reading. His act is unmatched to many of the best believers.

Know you and your life already but this book make me convinced to appreciate your efforts more and once again. May Allah give you more success and better health. You did and you achieved what many individuals with all facilities can't achieve.

Best of luck.
